“One of the truly great achievements of mankind... It has set the pattern of revolutionary action throughout the Third World”- Theodore McDonald, Schooling the Revolution.

Fidel Castro at the graduation of Maria de la Cruz Sentamarat, aged 106 - the oldest student of the literacy campaign.

Join SHSU labour and Sheffield Cuba Solidarity Campaign in a screening of the short documentary “Maestra”, which tells the inspirational story of the 1961 Cuban literacy campaign. (Maestra is Spanish for female teacher- most of those who took part in the campaign were young women.)

The screening will be followed by a discussion of the film and what we can learn in Britain today from the achievements that Cuba has made in the past 60 years in the fields of education, healthcare, women’s rights and beyond.
